"that's a first," said smith, a park wild- life biologist and the leader of its wolf, elk, and beaver projects. "i've never seen moose here. it used to be all elk." he stopped to show me where a nibbling moose, perhaps the cow we'd startled, had trimmed a few willows. "that kind of browsing is actu-ally good for the willows; it stimulates new ...

the dun horse - university of south florida - get pieces of robes, wornout moccasins with holes in them, and bits of meat. now, it happened one day, after the tribe had moved away from the camp, that this old woman and her boy were following along the trail behind the rest, when they came to a miserable old wornout dun horse, which they supposed had been abandoned by some in-dians. he was thin and exhausted, was blind of one eye, had a ...
